

Students with Disabilities

Students with Disabilities Reasonable accommodations will be made on a case by case basis. It is however the responsibility of the person with disabilities to inform the admissions department at the time of enrollment. The student will need to provide documentation of the disability to the school. Upon receiving the documentation, a reasonable effort will be made to accommodate the student's needs to satisfy admission requirements, course completion, or graduation requirements.